SPAR GROUP REPORTS RESULTS
FOR 2007 FIRST QUARTER

TARRYTOWN, NY—May 7, 2007—SPAR Group, Inc. (NASDAQ:SGRP) today reported results for the first quarter ended March 31, 2007.

Net revenues for the 2007 first quarter amounted to $15.4 million, compared with $15.8 million a year ago. Last year included an additional one quarter of revenue, or approximately $1.3 million, from the company's Japan joint venture in connection with its change to a calendar reporting year, as well as approximately $770,000 from the termination of a customer service agreement.

The company recorded a net loss of $509,000, equal to $0.03 per share, for the 2007 first quarter, compared with net income of $777,000, or $0.04 per share, a year ago. Net income for the prior year included two material items, approximately $770,000 from the termination of a customer service agreement and $175,000 in connection with settlement of a vendor lawsuit.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the 2007 first quarter increased to $5.2 million from $5.1 million last year. The prior year included an additional one quarter of expense, or approximately $544,000, from the company's Japan joint venture.

Robert G. Brown, SPAR Group's chairman and chief executive officer, said, "Domestically, we continue to face a challenging environment. We are hopeful that with our new customers and our current business prospects, domestic results will improve by year end," Brown said. "Internationally, we will continue our efforts to expand, and we hope to improve our profits. We will continue to invest in technology such as RFID that we believe will have a positive impact on the company's long-term future. We are building a foundation and believe SPAR Group is well positioned in the markets we serve, both domestically and internationally."

During the 2007 first quarter, SPAR Group announced the further expansion of its international presence, entering New Zealand to complement its existing operation in Australia, which was established in 2006.

SPAR Group said international revenue for the 2007 first quarter rose to $7.0 million from $5.0 million last year. The $5.0 million included an additional one quarter of revenue, or approximately $1.3 million in 2006 from the company's Japan joint venture. SPAR Group reported a net loss from international operations of $118,000, compared with a net loss of $44,000 for first quarter of 2006.

Revenue in the U.S. amounted to $8.4 million, compared with $10.8 million a year ago, including approximately $770,000 from the termination of a customer service agreement. Net loss attributable to the company's U.S. operations amounted to $391,000 for the 2007 first quarter, compared with net income of $821,000 last year, that included $770,000 from the termination of a customer service agreement and $175,000 in connection with settlement of a vendor lawsuit.
